White Bark Birch, Multi-stem Images Dry stone Wall Images Herbaceous Border Images Narrow planting border with low maintenance area of planting. Area cover mix of walls shrubs, climbers with beach pebble and cobble, under laid with and suitable shrubs to mypex (water permeable weed suppressent create interest when membrane). Suitable planting material to suit growing conditions. entering/exiting house. Planted border to help create feeling of privacy in patio area and form soft back drop to hard landscaping. Limestone patio and pathway to form area for outdoor entertainment. Gravel pathway edged with natural stone kerbing to retain pebble and form neat edge to Dry stone quartz walling to form 3 distinct seperate levels in garden. Lower Level Walls will vary between 100mm and 500 mm in height, to follow Recess manhole cover to contours of garden. replace existing manhole. recess cover infilled with Betula utilis jacqumontii(white pebble to match pebble on bark birch) multi stemmed pathway. specimen with naturalised bulbs planted in lawn area immediately surrounding Border largely of herbaceous canopy of tree. perennials, ornamental grasses, architectural planting and bulbs to form main planting area with interest in both colour and Roll out turf lawn form from spring through to late Autumn. Taxus baccata(Irish yew) to form neat Drawing Title: Base Plan Inchicore Road, Kilmainham
March 2010
Fintan Damer Bsc. Hort.
1:100 @A3 evergreen hedge maintained to approx. Location: 120cm in height, along front wall. Date: Drawn by: Cutting Edge Landscapes Ltd. 'Sunrise' Stedalt, Stamullen, Co. Meath

Tel: 087 2490860/ OI 8481387 Email: info@landscapingireland.com Web: www.landscapingireland.com